

Home > Industry Announcements

Industry Announcements

- International Asset Systems (IAS) has named John Allen to the position of senior vice president, Client Services. Allen will be responsible for ensuring clients receive the highest level of professional care during customer implementations, deployments, and post-installation support. Prior to joining IAS, Allen worked in various positions at APL, an ocean shipping and container transportation services provider. (December 17, 2012)

DC Velocity Mobile Apps
 Introducing DC Velocity's Apps for iPhone/iPad and Android
GET AN APP »

Industry Announcements »

Read the latest industry news from Crowley Maritime Corporation, SI Systems, Vitronic Machine Vision Ltd., International Asset Systems, and Hytrol Conveyor Co., Inc. »

More announcements »
Submit your company's announcement

Get up to speed FAST!

DC Velocity's free e-newsletters bring the following and more right to your inbox:

- Top news
- Current issue highlights
- New videos from DCV-TV
- White papers
- Conference reports

SUBSCRIBE NOW

Most Popular Articles

1. W(h)ither ABF?
2. At FedEx, say hello to the next 40 years
3. Teamster locals to present two-year contract proposal to ABF
4. USPS' 2013 rate increases would hit e-merchants hard but spare high-volume Priority Mail users
5. Honeywell's $600 million purchase of Intermec vaults giant into the auto-ID/data capture mainstream
6. Top 10 logistics challenges for 2013 (and beyond)
7. Rapid fulfillment on an unprecedented scale: interview with Amazon.com's Dave Clark
8. Getting the big-picture view of inventory
9. Postal Service enters same-day fray with rollout of limited delivery program
10. FedEx to raise ground parcel rates 4.9 percent; increase matches UPS' parcel hike